ATTEND the primaries.

ELECT honest and judicious delegates.

GIVE us a ticket that every republican in the county can heartily support.

KING LUDWIG, of Bavaria, who was recently deposed, committed suicide on Sunday by throwing himself into lake Starnberg.

EVEN South Carolina could only muster nine men at a State Free Trade convention. Free trade is one "cause" that even the South is beginning to admit, is "lost."

BOUTWORTH county held her primaries last Saturday and elected a solid Funston delegation. A worthy example that we expect to see followed by six or seven other counties in the Second District.

As the President and his wife entered church on the first Sunday of their married life, the congregation arose and sang, "Laden with Guilt and Full of Fear." Mrs. Malaprop must have been leading the choir.

MISS MINNIE HAUCK, the American prima donna, is as full of patriotism as she is full of music. She recently leased her castle in Switzerland to a Russian family, but expressly stipulated that the American flag must always be kept flying from the towers.

THE Kansas City Journal admits to its columns over any sort of an assumed signature the gravest charges against Mr. Funston. Yet it refuses to publish a refutation of those charges, although written in perfectly respectful language and signed with the proper name of the author. This shows that the Journal is influenced by other motives than concern for the public good.

THE communication in a recent issue of the Kansas City Journal signed "Franklin," and purporting to come from Ottawa, was written at Lawrence by a political vagabond who two years ago was one of Mr. Funston's warmest supporters, but who has found out that he cannot use him and so attempts now, under an assumed name, to stab him. We know this to be a fact and can name the man if necessary.

For the further consolation of those who fear that prohibition does not prohibit, "particularly in the larger towns," we clip the following concise statements from the Wichita Eagle:

There is not an open saloon in Wichita, and there is no call for one. We haven't heard a man, not even a bum, inquire the way to a saloon in months. The joints and holes with private keys are even at a discount, while the growth of the blank permit trade is not perceptibly increasing.

WHILE the nomination of Mr. Funston is practically conceded, even by his enemies, yet the opposition to him have not relaxed their efforts and are vigilantly watching for the least thing that may be turned against him. As long as this is true his friends should be equally vigilant and not take success for granted until it is actually achieved. If those who really want to see Mr. Funston nominated only do their duty, their wishes will be no doubt realized.

We have received a copy of the Anderson bill as amended by the Senate Committee on Public Lands and recommended by it for passage. The amendments really amount to a substitute and while the bill suits us, it is so radical a change from the original Anderson bill that even if it succeeds in getting through the Senate we fear it will not be approved by the House. We hope, however, that our delegation will do every thing they possibly can to crowd it through. Allen county can ill afford to have this Congress adjourn without giving us some relief.

THE Kansas City Journal is much mistaken if it thinks the people of the Second District are going to allow their choice of congressman to be influenced by an anonymous communication in its columns. It is always safe to set a man-down as either a coward or a liar—and he is generally both—who hides under an assumed name, when attacking the character of another. Such, at least, is the judgment of the people of the Second District regarding the Journal's correspondent "Franklin."

THE first of the week we learned that serious charges were being preferred against the professional character of one of the candidates before the republican convention. Believing that if true they ought to be made known, and that if false they ought to be suppressed, we went to those preferring them and proposed that the evidence purporting to substantiate them be submitted to the accused and then published with his reply, thus giving the people both sides of the matter and permitting them to judge. This was agreed to. For unavoidable reasons, however, it was impossible to procure all the evidence desired until late Wednesday night. As the REGISTER goes to press at noon on Thursday it was too late to give the accused a reasonable chance to make his defense, besides being almost a mechanical impossibility for us to set up the necessary amount of matter. For these reasons we declined to undertake the publication. The matter is only referred to in order that those who expected it to appear in this issue of the paper may understand why it does not.

SEEKING PARDON.
NOTICE is hereby given that on July 13th, I will make application to the Governor, at Topeka, for the pardon of Hugh Guillard and Louis Guillard, convicted May 19, 1884, of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to be hanged.

DEAR, June 9, 1886.
The above notice appeared last week in the Fredonia Citizen, but as it is probably of more interest to the citizens of Allen than to those of Wilson county, we give it the benefit of our circulation. It is hardly necessary to remind our readers of the facts called up by this notice. The Guillards (father and son) were tried at the May term of court in 1884, at Fredonia, whether the case had been taken on change of venue, and found guilty of murdering Robert McFarland and James Harclerode, of this county. They were clearly proven guilty of cold blooded, premeditated murder, and were justly sentenced to death. Allen county considered it bad enough that under our laws this sentence cannot be executed, but she would consider it an unspeakable outrage to have the ends of justice set aside by the pardon of these men. Fortunately one member of the State Board of Pardoners, to whom the matter will be referred, is fully acquainted with all the facts in the case, and there is little danger of the unrighteous pardon being granted.

COUNTY NOTES.

FROM REGISTER REPORTERS

What is Being Done Throughout the County—Events and Gossip of the Week.

Moran Matters.
Children's day was a red letter day for the M. E. Sunday School. The church was handsomely decorated with flowers and birds, there being nice cages and I don't know how many birds. Among them was Merril's mocking bird which occasionally amused the audience by singing Yankee Doodle. The program was carried out with the exception of one piece.

Messrs. W. F. Gorrell and D. Griffith are the proud men this week. They are both girls. Bill Davis is visiting in Ohio.

Remember when you vote for Ed. Lacy you vote for a man with a principle and that principle he holds above price. There is no danger of Ed. Lacy selling out.

Misses Elsie Newman, Lizzie Bacon and Emma Lacy are attending the Normal at Iola.

Miss Fannie Johnson's school closed a week on the 14th and will have the first and best on the grounds, and what he purposes he generally performs. Don't fail to hunt him up and if you don't make a purchase he will not charge you anything for it.

Vote for Ed. Lacy, the farmer candidate for representative. Nearly all the other candidates are spending more or less time trying to convince the people that they are the men for the office. Mr. Lacy is not an office seeker, but believes the office should seek the man, hence he stays at home and cultivates his corn, while others are seeking office.

The citizens and old soldiers met Monday night and perfected the arrangements for the Fourth. I understand Judge Thatcher, of Lawrence, is expected to be present, also Messrs. Fount and Ewing, of Iola. There will be a grand display of fireworks in the evening. Let every body come out and have a good time.

Centre Grove Hallings.
What a glorious rain we had last week! It quenched the thirst of everything and had a slight effect on the chintz bugs also.

Miss Jennie McKinney, of Cottage Grove, and Miss Birdie Reed, of Centre Grove, are attending the Normal at Iola.

Mrs. Jennie (Hunt) Fletcher, of Emporia, is spending a few days with her parents.

Miss Fannie Johnson's school closed a week ago last Friday. We understand all were well pleased with her.

A very pleasant surprise party at Mr. Joe Thompson's last Friday evening, that being their seventh wedding anniversary. All present had a very pleasant time.

Children's day was celebrated in a very appropriate manner by the Cottage Grove S. S. society in Capt. Stewart's grove last Sunday. Ed Burson spent last Sunday at Mr. Baggett's. We think a few of the Cottage Grove boys and girls took the ice cream parlors of Humboldt by surprise last Sunday evening.

Mr. Joe Thompson and wife paid your city a short visit last Monday.

Messrs. Harry McKeever and Frank Moore were in Iola last Tuesday.

Mr. Sam Nye and family spent last Sabbath down below Chautau.

The mistakes in our items last week were as follows: For Clarkson you made me say Clark; for Lockhart, Gockhart. LADY GRAY.

West of the River.
Harvest is progressing in our neighborhood as follows: Joe Clark is cutting with an Armstrong machine; Mr. Bates and John Young with a new self rake and L. Cutright with a new Deering binder.

Our farmers are all jubilant and happy over the exceedingly fine crop prospects. They are glad that they live in Allen county, Kansas.

We most highly appreciate that Grant Billie has at last recovered from his painful siege of inflammatory rheumatism.

The following persons from Liberty school and vicinity are attending Normal: R. S. Russ, Grant Billie, Curt Cornell, Lee See, Mary So, Mary Eldridge, Mattie Travis, Mary Riggs and Grace Valentine. There may be some of whom we have not heard.

Mr. Lammion, of Nebraska, is visiting her brother, Mr. Samuel Riggs.

Miss Emma Barnhart is visiting in Franklin county.

One of the attractions last week was a lecture at Liberty school house by a traveling man.

R. S. Russ and pupils of Liberty school will present the drama, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" at Pleasant Valley school house the evening of the 25th inst. Their success at home insures them a crowded house.

Neosho Valley Notes.
Miss Ella Morton of Iola spent last week with the people of this neighborhood.

Social gatherings have occurred weekly lately. The last one was held at C. Cleaver's on Monday evening.

Miss Ella Morton came up from Humboldt last Saturday and remained in the neighborhood until Tuesday.

place. His sister, Miss Jennie, will accompany him and keep house during his stay there. Rev. J. W. Jody will occupy the pulpit at the church next Saturday evening and Sunday morning.

Salem Sentences.
Frank Ferguson, from across the river, was visiting his uncle, D. Ferguson, last Saturday. The Children's Day exercises went off nicely. About two hundred persons were present.

Mr. McCarty, from near Iola, was visiting Mr. Myler last week.

There was a party at Mr. Davis' last Thursday night. Everybody had a pleasant time.

Those attending the Normal from Salem are Ada and Alice Myler, Bernice Ferguson, Alice Pearson, George and Amy Seymour, Harry Towner, Mattie Brady, Ollie Gernal, Orrie Buckingham, Josie Moore, Bertie Jay and Jennie Marshall.

Miss Mattie Adams is visiting friends in Colony this week.

Remarkable Recovery.

Mr. Geo. V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She used two bottles of Electric Bitters, and is so much improved, that she is able now to do her own work." Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative powers. Only fifty cents a bottle at Goodhue & Evans'.
